

FOR QUANTITY SURVEYORS

Welcome to the latest development from the QSi

This requirement has recently been completed and shall be live within the next few days to please re-visit and have a look at the latest vacancies being advertised by our members.

If you are a company looking to advertise jobs then please email a list of vacancies available to admin@theqsi.co.uk and we shall include them on the list.

Also register on our site if looking for staff or indeed looking for work and we will try and put both parties in contact with each other to ensure the right person gets the right job.

Thankyou for checking the new facility and please re-visit soon to view the first batch of vacancies.
